TONIGHT'S MATCHUP

October 22, 2021
7:05 p.m.
Berglund Center
Roanoke, Va.

Fayetteville (1-0-0)
Roanoke (0-1-0)

FAYETTEVILLE MARKSMEN @ ROANOKE RAIL YARD DAWGS

After nearly two years of waiting for the return of hockey to both Fayetteville and Roanoke, the Marksmen and the Rail Yard Dawgs met for the first of seventeen times this season. While Roanoke struck first, it was a four-goal third period by Fayetteville that led the Marksmen to a 4-1 win.

Matt Beer opened the scoring on not only the last meeting between these two teams, but also for the whole of the SPHL season scoring on the first shot of the game just 2:35 into the first period.

Fayetteville would withstand the physical play that a Dan Bremner-coached team always brings to the table, and when the third period rolled around, the Marksmen unleashed an onslaught of scoring. Drake Glover would score twice in the three-minute span before adding a helper on a Matt McNair one-timer. McNair, the Warrior SPHL Co-Player of the Week finished with two goals and two assists, adding an empty-netter.

Fayetteville was able to add a couple of youngsters into the lineup for this week's matchup signing defenseman Alexis Girard and forward Koby Morrisseau. The Marksmen also added forward Taylor McCloy on Thursday, Oct. 21 for veteran scoring help.

While Roanoke with hurt after losing a long-held lead, last Friday, the addition of goaltender Austyn Roudebush and forward Nick Ford should alleviate some of the sting. Roudebush played in Knoxville last season and at one point strung together a streak of 10-straight wins and a sub-1.00 GAA over the span. He falls back to Roanoke after spending the previous week in Toledo's (ECHL) training camp.

Roanoke has lost defenseman Carter Allen (ECHL-South Carolina), but looks to rebound at home on Friday night.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING...

"It was a good start for us, but we have a lot of things to clean up... a lot of things."

"I'm a stay at home defenseman, I have to take of my own end first and I think our group did a good job those last 40 minutes of taking care of home."

"Ready."

-Fayetteville head coach, Cory Melkert

-Fayetteville defenseman, Harrison Harper

-Fayetteville forward, Taylor McCloy on his return to the team.

McNAIR NAMED PLAYER OF WEEK

On Wednesday, rookie forward Matt McNair was named the Warrior SPHL Player of the Week. In his pro hockey debut, McNair scored two goals and added two assists in a 4-1 win over the Roanoke Rail Yard Dawgs.

McNair is a product of Adrian College and a native of Calgary, Alb.

He remains a soft-spoken, nose-to-the-grindstone player who is earning his spot daily on the Marksmen team.

McNair shared the SPHL Player of the Week honor with Evansville's Mike Ferraro who scored 5 points (3g, 2a) in the opening weekend of the season.

A HERO AMONG US

Thomas Clayton has played pro hockey before, bouncing around with the Knoxville Ice Bears and the Watertown Wolves (FPHL). With a season lost due to COVID-19, Clayton found himself needing a job out of hockey. So he enlisted in the United States Army.

Clayton is currently juggling a full-time Army schedule while serving at Ft. Bragg while practicing with the Marksmen.

He only saw a handful of shifts in last Friday's win over Roanoke, but Clayton is a special story and one you may not see again in the league this season.

A PUNCHER'S CHANCE

Carter Struthers, Jarret Kup and Bryce Ferrell all found themselves in serious scuffles during the season's opening contest.

With fighting as part of the game, head coach Cory Melkert was proud of his team's ability to answer the bell and create some momentum while down a goal in the second period.

Roanoke and Fayetteville face off 17 times during the course of the year and seeing an opponent that many times will mean some more fireworks throughout the course of the season.

SPECIAL F.X.

While Matt McNair and Drake Glover stole the show from a points department, F.X. Girard also notched his first professional point.

Girard, a Quebec-native, logged an assist in the 4-1 over Roanoke last week. Head coach, Cory Melkert praised him, saying he thought he had scouted and found a "real player in F.X."

Girard and McNair are currently leading the SPHL in +/- (+4) and teammates Glover and Don Olivieri are tied for third in the category (+3).

BETWEEN THE PIPES

At one point in the season, Jason Pawloski held a 24.49 GAA with an 0.00 save percentage—that was after the first shot of the season. Since the 2:35 mark of the first period in Friday's 4-1 win, Pawloski has stopped every shot he's faced. Pawloski currently leads the league in save percentage (.962) and is tied with Jimmy Poreda (KNX) for the league's best GAA at 1.00.

BROADCASTER'S QUIZZICAL CORNER

Here you can find a small sampling of nuggets from our play-by-play voice's research. It's a potpourri, so enjoy!

-Fayetteville will have the longest break between home games of any team in the SPHL. When the Marksmen take home ice on Saturday, Oct. 30 it will have been 609 days between home games. The last time the Marksmen played at home:

#1 Song: The Box- Roddy Ricch

Premiering Movies: Onward and The Invisible Man

Feb, 29, 2020 also marked the U.S.'s first COVID death in Wash.

-Berglund Center has hosted hockey since 1993, but it was initially built for basketball. Appalachian St. won a Southern Conference basketball title in the building (1979) and the Berglund Center was also one of the buildings to host the ABA's Virginia Squires.

LOCKER ROOM POLICY

For both home and road games, the Marksmen locker room is closed. Please contact Drew Blevins at (919) 818-1396 to request an interview with a player or coach after a game.

OWNER AND PRESIDENT, CHUCK NORRIS

Chuck Norris, the owner and president of the Fayetteville Marksmen, purchased the franchise in April 2017.

Wanting to connect the team with the city of Fayetteville and the community around the Sandhills of North Carolina, Norris rebranded the team as “the Marksmen,” a nod to the many soldiers and veterans in the Ft Bragg area.

A former U.S. Army Paratrooper himself, Norris served in the 3rd Special Forces Group (Airborne) from 1989-1993 and is a veteran of Operation Desert Storm.

In July 1993, Norris began his post-military life as the owner and operator of SUBS Car Audio and later added a retail furniture store known as Furniture Express, Inc.

Norris established Charles Norris Construction, Inc. in 1998. Since then, Norris Construction has developed 8 different residential neighborhoods, consisting of 300+ homes in Cumberland, Hoke, and Harnett Counties.

Today, Norris resides in Weddington, N.C. with his wife, Lanai, and their three children Chucky, Lilly, and Khloe.

PRE-PRO CAREER

Melkert started his hockey career in the OJHL with the Gloucester Rangers and finished with the Trenton Golden Hawks. He played college hockey for SUNY-Fredonia, logging 10 points in 90 games for the Blue Devils. He served as the school's captain in 2014-15, his senior season.

HEAD COACH, CORY MELKERT

Cory Melkert was hired as the fifth head coach in Fayetteville Marksmen history in July 2020. Melkert had previously served as the team's assistant coach the prior season.

A native of Kenmore, Ont., Melkert was a well-respected defenseman with the OJHL's Trenton Golden Hawks. After logging 38 points in 45 games with Trenton, Melkert began his collegiate career with SUNY-Fredonia (NCAA D-III).

Melkert played 90 games with the Blue Devils and served as the team captain his senior season.

After graduation, Melkert played in Germany's third-tier league with EHC Timmendorfer Strand before returning to the U.S. in 2016-17 with the SPHL's Roanoke Rail Yard Dawgs.

Melkert would go on to play 152 games in the SPHL, 81 of them coming with the Evansville Thunderbolts. He would receive one call-up to the ECHL's Wichita Thunder in 2017-18.

The final stop in Melkert's playing career was with the Marksmen, where both ownership and the then-current coaching staff recognized his ability as a potential coach and leader.
